FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JWZ WINS THREE NASLA AWARDS

Las Vegas, NV – J.W. Zunino & Associates is proud to announce that it took home three awards from the Nevada Chapter of the American Society of Landscape Architects (NASLA) at its “Pink Flamingo” Holiday Awards Banquet held on December 5th.

The M Resort won a Merit Award in the “Mixed Use & Commercial” category. Symphony Park won not only a Merit Award in the “Unbuilt” category, but was also chosen to receive the “Viewer’s Choice” award, which was voted upon by attendees at the Pink Flamingo event. Symphony Park beat out 43 other projects to win the Viewer’s Choice award.

JWZ is also proud to have the winner of the NASLA “Student Award” working for our firm. Ms. Shavawn Coleman, who is now a graduate of the Landscape Architecture Program at UNLV, worked for JWZ part-time for 3 years while completing her studies on a full-time basis. She is now a full-time Project Coordinator with our company. Her winning project is entitled “Deconstructing Concrete”. It examines alternative design approaches to existing storm water channels in the Las Vegas Valley. These approaches included phytoremediation, infiltration, and biofiltration to naturally filter the water before it reaches Lake Mead.
